

American Sign Language Classes for Families

January 22 – March 26, 2011

Saturday Mornings @ 9:30-11:30a.m.

Bread of Life Deaf Lutheran Church – Social Hall
2901 38th Ave., South
Minneapolis, MN 55406

Need directions? breadoflifedeaf.org

This is a 10-week interactive class in a fun, relaxed environment, focusing on the particular needs of families with children who are deaf or hard of hearing. Childcare is not provided.

Two Payment Options:

- 1) Pay as you go = $10 per class, per adult
 - 2) Pay for the entire 10 weeks by January 22 = $7.50 per class, per adult
- Children 0-18 years of age – FREE* (*with paid adult)
Please make checks payable to “BOLD – ASL Classes”

Teacher: Carole Virnig (An adult who is Deaf)

Interpreter Trainer and ASL Instructor/Tutor since 1989

*St. Paul College since 1989

*College of St. Catherine for 14 years

*University of Minnesota for 13 years

Please register with MN Hands & Voices (space is limited):

651/265-2435 (voice)

866/261-0857 (videophone)

mnhv@lifetrackresources.org

Comments from previous students:

“Using current events/holidays worked well.”

“Having students sign sentences really reinforces the learned signs.”

“I liked learning with themes – one week we did clothes, another week we did colors, etc.”

A collaboration between Bread of Life Deaf Lutheran Church and MN Hands & Voices.

